The sum total of these rents foot up nearly six thousand dollars, and this is exclusive of the two basements, which rent for about $600 per year. These rents exceed greatly those of last year.

We offer, free gratis and for nothing the following advice to a friend that lives on our path home: If you have occasion to use a wheelbarrow, leave it, when you are through with it, in front of the house with the handles towards the door. A wheelbarrow is the most complicated thing to fall over on the urchins yesterday blew the horns off face of the earth. MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1 .- General B. B. Simms, with the vote of the Electoral College of Louisians, has arrived and delivered his packages. It is understood that the vote which he bears for Presideat is blank, and that for Vice President will be counted for Gratz Brown.

The reception at the White House to-ciay fully equalled in the splendor of its details that of any former occasion. The ceremonies commenced with the reception of the diplomatic corps, which formality was executed by Secretary Fish. The Ministers were resplendent in full court costume, and many of them were accompanied by the ladies of their families. They were headed by Biacque Bey, the Dean of the corps, followed by Sir Edward Thornton, and all were presented in the order of their rank. There were also present, of the foreign legations, Baron Ledroer, the Austrian Minister; Colonel Freyrre, the Prussian Borger, the Brazillian Minister, and lady; Admiral Polo de Bonable, Spanish Minister; Baron Offenberg, the Russian Minister; Marquis De Noilles, the French Minister; Senor Martin, the Columbian Minister; Senor Dardon, the Minister from Guatemala; Mr. Delfasse, the Belgium Minister; General Golloff. the General Agent of Russia, residing in New York; Mr. Steror-sen, the Swedish Minister; the Chevalier Jober, the Portuguese Minister; Mr. Preston, Haytian Minister; Mr. Westonburg, Minister from the Netherlands; Mr. Mori, Charge d'Affairs of Japan ; Senor Gon zales Errazevs, Charge d'Affairs of Chili; Senor Dardon, Charge d'Affairs nation by a portion of the people single State, when nearly an number of the citizens composed of the most ignorant and malignant classes, are in sympathy and actual co-operation with the Fedauthorities. Hence it would have been the height of folly and madness for the Louisianians to inaugurate a reign of bloodshed and cruel destruction of life and property, by resisting the bayonet law which is now clutching at their throats.

The people of Louisiana, even if they were inclined to take such a rash and violent step, are not in a situation to resist by force the adherents of Pinchback, supported as they are by the whole military power of the national government. What else could the people do but yield to the imperious demands of the dusky Pinchback, and the tyranical order of a subsidized Federal Judge?

Therefore, an acquiescence on their part in the present condition of affairs is the only alternative left them. But even if this were not so, we should oppose revolutionary violence in any event. To the Courts alone should there be a resort for all matters of difference arising on questions of law and government, and an appeal to arms should never be made by any State or nation, until all other remedies have been tried and proved abortive.

Private and public wrongs should be redressed peacefully, honorably and regum, the sword, should be put Treasury Department. the from public sight, in march of civilization and human ber of President Grant's Cabinet, it is progress, and mankind should be not likely that he will return to the taught to look with abhorrence and disof barbaric inhumanity.

The people of Louisiana must accept to us a little premature. the situation, not only because they are powerless to resist the Federal power, but because it is their duty to appeal first to the Courts below, and if justice is denied them, to look to that higher tribunal, the Supreme Court of the United States, for redress of their wrongs. If the law itself sanctions the extraordinary course of Durell, and the Supreme Court so decides, then the only remedy will be a repeal of the unjust law, at the earliest practicable moment. If the unjust law is not repealed, but remains upon the statute books in all its revolting features, then there must be still submission to oppression and outrage, rather than add to the horrors of the situation by a vain and bloody twenty-second volume on the 1st inst. On that day it appeared in a new dress, and in an enlarged form. It is now a thirty-two column sheet, the largest daily in the State, and it is one of the handsomest and ablest edited.

THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL. The Wilmington Journal began its

Col. William L. Saunders, the popular and efficient Chief Clerk of the Senate, for the first time makes public announcement of his connection with the Journal, although it is well known that he has been contributing for months to its editorial columns, his able, trench ant and well-written articles adding much to the interest and usefulness of

With two such Editors as Major Joseph A. Engelhard and Col. Saunders. the Journal is bound to remain, as it has heretofore been, a power in the land, and a bold, earnest, eloquent advocate of the rights, interests and honor of the Old North State.

Long may the Journal flourish. Its gifted editors have our best wishes for their journalistic prosperity and success, and for their individual welfare and happiness as well.

We make the following extract from the editorial announcement of the com mencement of the twenty second volume of the Daily Journal . "What the Journal has been it will

Looking back through its columns we have a minute record of the progress of Wilmington, and the current history of the State and country for nearly a quarter of a century. Its commercial and advertising columns give a full and correct history of the business of our city, which can be found nowhere else. Its moral, social and health statistics are no less lie for the Journal, which has sustained strongly advocaced the schemes of the it during all those eventful years, and Pacific Railroad Company, were allowed which has ever been appreciated by its successive proprietors, has been the means of preserving these invaluable greatly below its real value at the time dec 29-tf Baleigh, N. times of plague and pestilence and war as well as in times of peace, the Journal has become one of the institutions of the State, and, indeed, is almost the only landmark of the olden time that is left to us. Our labors and responsibilities will be greatly increased by the enlargement of our paper, but to this we cheerfully and willingly assent, in view of the in crease of business and patronage we trust we shall merit and receive.

We assure our readers that we shall spare no effort to make the Journal worthy of the confidence of the intelligent and liberal public who have so long given it their support.

WILL THERE BE A CHANGE IN THE CABINET!

The rumors that there will be several changes soon in the President's Cabinet, seem to be without much founda-

Notwithstanding the statements of certain correspondents, that Secretaries Fish and Boutwell, and Attorney General Williams, will positively retire on the fourth of March, information comes from the Attorney General himself that the report is false at least as to him. We think it highly probable the It would be insanity to advocate the resignation of Boutwell will depend policy of forcible resistance to the upon the result of the Senatorial elecstrong arm of the Executive of the tion in Massachusetts. The contest there lies between Boutwell, Dawes and Butler-with the chances in favor of Boutwell. We believe it is generally understood that Secretary Fish will resign on the 4th of March, in accordance with the purpose expressed by him some months since.

The Attorney General is annoyed at the rumor of his retirement, and authorizes its positive contradiction.

As soon as it becomes noised about that vacancies are likely to occur in the Cabinet, enterprising newspaper correspondents forthwith begin to cast around for the successors of the retiring members, and names are suggested which perhaps have never occurred to the President, and which will never be taken into consideration by him, when he comes to make a decision. Such, for instance, is the mention of the name of Hon. E. R. Hoar, of Massachusetts, to fill the vacancy which is to be made when Mr. Fish retires, and that of Ex-Senator Morgan of New York who, according to these sensational newspaper men, is to take constitutionally. The ultima ratio Mr. Boutwell's place, at the head o the

THE STRUGGLE OVER MR. GREELEY'S WILL.

We regret to see that the contest concerning Horace Greeley's will is to be renewed in the New York Courts, on

The contestants have served notice upon Miss Ida Greelev, "to show cause why the will of 1871 shall not be admitted to probate."

In that bequest, after providing for his family and relatives, Mr. Greeley, gave a good portion of his property to charitable societies. His last will, revoking the former, gave to his two daughters, Ida and Gabrielle, almost bis entire real and personal estate The relatives, including his sister Mrs. Cleaveland, in favor of Mr. Greeley's daughters, have relinquished all claim to the interest bequeathed them by the deceased in his former wills, and have refused to make any contest.

The contestants who claim under the will of 1871, contend that Mr. Greeley was non compos mentis at the time he made his last will, that he was laboring under mental aberration, which afterwards fully developed itself in his last illness, and therefore his devise to his daughters is illegal and void

The conduct of Miss Ida Greeley in this matter has won for her the entire sympathy of the public, and has elicited universal commerdation. She has acted in a modest, womaniy and magnanimous manner since the contest was threatened, and is no doubt deeply pained that the private affairs of her family have been paraded with so much publicity through the newspapers

Our city was alive with amusements during the holidays. Christmas day, though the ground was wrapped in one winding sheet of snow shoe-mouth deep, was no less enjoyed. From daybreak to late at night the firing of old muskets by boys and negroes, was heard, and fire-works at night also illuminated the city. The ball at the Benbow House on Christmas night was a grand success. Nine o'clock found 1734. the croad assembling, and those who "tripped the light fantastic toe," soon made their appearance on the floor. The dancing continued till a late hour, when supper was announced, and a feast, "which was a feast," was spread before the "light-toed" creatures. Suffice it bences were issued in New Hanover to say, that justice was done at the table, or rather to the plates, as the edibles were handed around.

After supper was over, some returned to the "same old dance," and others went home. Part of the crowd lingered on till the "wee sma' hours of morn," when the party separated. The ladies who made a fine turn-out on this occa-M. H. Albright, Esq., has sold out made some of the young men's hearts

This is strictly a

HOME LIFE COMPANY. Its Officers and Directors are citizens of the State, of high character for business capacity, enterprise and probity, It offers that Northern Companies do, with the great additional consideration that the capital is kept within the State, and, therefore, helps to build up and foster Home Institutions. Another important fact to be considered is, that the Wilmington Live has thus far obtained A VERY MUCH LARGER INTEREST for the money invested at home, than any of the New York Companies receive for their investments, according to their sworn statements before the Commissioner of that State.

These unquestionable facts should commend this Company, above all others, to our people. Let it be born in mind that millions of dollars received for Life premiums have been sent North since the war, which at once drains the South and enricnes the plethoric capitalists of the North. If there was no other consideration, safety, fairness and cheapness being equal, why North Carolinians should insure at home. this were more than sufficient.

THE WILMINGTON LIFE has excellent special features.

It places no restriction on Residence or Travel; it makes no extra charge for Female risks; and its Policies are incontestable after Five Years.

Its business is managed economically. Its risks are taken with equal caution. Its investments are made judiciously.

Its motto is: ECONOMY, PROMPTNESS, FAIRNESS," AGENTS WANTED in every County in the State, with whom the most liberal terms

REMARKABLE GIFT ENTERPRISE .-There is a smart family up town. .t consists of a father, mother, and seven children. Before Christmas the old folks hit upon the following shrewd plan: Selecting the families of friends in which there was but a single child, a handsome present was purchased and sent to it a day in advance in the name of the seven youngsters of the scheming family. Of course this implied reciprocity on the part of the old folks who owned the single juvenile. It would not do to send one present for seven gift makers, neither would it be appropriate to send one less cost!y or elegant than received. There being no other alternative than to reciprocate the com, pliment to all in kind, the father of the lone youngster, with a heavy heart, dispatched seven presents, each in value equal to the one his darling was favored with, and thus by a little shrewd management, the paternal ancestors of the seven olive branches reaped a sevenfold dividend from their thoughtful investment. Verily, verily, "Cast thy bread upon the waters, and after many days it shall return unto thee."-Phila. Star.

How to CURE TROUBLE.-Work is your true remedy. If misfortune hits you hard, hit you something else hard; go at something with a will. There is nothing like good, solid, absorbing, exhausting work to cure trouble. If you have met with losses, you do not want to lie awake thinking about them. You | Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods and Notions want sweet, calm, sound sleep, and to eat your dinner with appetite. But you cannot unless you work. There are some great trousles that only time heals, and perhaps some that can never be healed at all; but all can be helped by the great panacea, work. Try it, you who are afflicted. It is not a patent medicine. It is an official remedy. All good physicians in regular standing prescribe it in cases of mental and moral disease. It operates kindly and well, leaving no disagreeable or ill-effects. It will cure more complaints than any terest to buy or us. nostrum in the Materia Medica, and comes nearer to being a 'cure all" than any drug or compound of drugs in the market; and it will not sicken you if you do not take it sugar coated.
